

Climate Change & the Physical Environment: Effect and Affect

Featuring local and regional experts discussing solutions for a better world.

College of Architecture Gallery, Room 210
10th & R street
Stadium Drive Parking Garage validation available

Sept 18th

Climate Effect

1-2pm Ken Winston, Sierra Club's Cool Cities Initiative

2-3pm Dave Dittloff, National Wildlife Federation
Duane Hovorka, Nebraska Wildlife Federation.

Short Break

3:15-4pm Regional Research
Ken Cassman, Director: Nebraska Center for Energy Sciences Research
W Cecil Steward, FAIA: Joslyn Institute for Sustainable Communities

4:30-6pm Panel Discussion

6-8pm Reception

Sept 19th

Affect Solutions

1-2pm Dr. Marcel Harmon: When Green Buildings Go Brown

2-3pm Tom Sanders, HDR: Community Climate Plans

3-4pm Graham Christensen, Nebraska Farmer's Union
Farming for the Future: Carbon Sequestration & Renewable Energy

ef.fect

1 a: purport, intent b: basic meaning : essence 2: something that inevitably follows an antecedent (as a cause or agent) 3: an outward sign : appearance 4: accomplishment, fulfillment 5: power to bring about a result :

affect

: to produce an effect upon: as a: to produce a material influence upon or alteration in <paralysis affected his limbs> b: to act upon

Each day is worth 3 AIA CEU's provided by AIA Nebraska

This event is free and open to the public, however to guarantee seating and for reception attendance please RSVP Doris Devries, ddevries1@unl.edu by Sept. 12th

Sponsored by:

NEBRASKA
FLATWATER

AIA Nebraska

