Firm Philosophy & Objectives

For more than 60 years, The Clark Enersen Partners has offered an integrated approach to design. We offer all the primary design disciplines — architecture, landscape architecture, site planning, interior design, and structural mechanical and electrical engineering — with our talented in-house staff. This daily collaboration ensures that the best solutions for form, function, and systems perform together seamlessly. Our collaboration extends to understanding the unique needs of each client, whether they are educational, recreational, scientific, commercial, correctional, judicial, municipal, or spiritual in nature. We aim to provide long-lasting value in what we do.
